Welcome

Worshipful Master: Bro. Keith Gobin

Keith Gobin is an Attleboro Native, growing up on Tiffany Street with his sister Leslie and his parents Doug and Luella. He works in the family business at V-Tron Electronics in South Attleboro, where he is the current Operations Manager. He is very involved at First Baptist Church in Attleboro where he serves as a Deacon.

Keith has 2 children that he always taught to follow their dreams, and they did. Stacie his oldest is currently living and working in Tanzania with her 2 adoptive children Oska and Jeska, whom she met during volunteer work at the Helping Hands Developmental Orphanage during her master's thesis.

His Son Bobby after graduating college headed to L.A where he is currently working to get a startup company off the ground.

Keith also has helped raise 3 other children with his wife, Gail. Jay is a US Army reservist with 2 deployments to the Middle East under his belt. He is also the incoming Junior Deacon at the lodge and a V-Tron Employee. Kayla works in the emergency room at Rhode Island hospital and is expecting her first child with her fiancé and Dustin works in the construction field. Keith and Gail also have 8 grandchildren and one more due in October.

Through the years Keith has held many positions in the lodge. He was the 2014 Mason of the Year recipient, a Ben Franklin Traveling Key holder and has been nominated for the Master builder award. Keith is also the current Marshal and a charter member of Nava Grotto.
